

The Grange Caravan Park Christmas Newsletter

Award Winners!

The Grange Caravan Park are thrilled to have been presented with the Camping, Glamping and Holiday Park of the Year Award at the Go Leicestershire Tourism & Hospitality Award Ceremony GoLeicestershire and the exciting news doesn't stop there— We have also been chosen to go through to the National Visit England Tourism Awards 2025! Myself and John have spent two years developing our beautiful park and to be winning this only 18 months after opening is amazing and an attribute to the hard work of our team— Julie, Carly, Brother Dave, Bramble & Milo who have all worked hard to make our beautiful park stand out for this award. Congratulations also go to the other Melton Mowbray winners— Meltons popular 1940s weekend held in May (4) Facebook Hidden Food Tours Home | Hidden Food Tours and History Fare Welcome to HistoryFare! - HistoryFare

December so far has been a busy month here not only at The Grange Caravan Park but also in Melton Mowbray with many festive events being held. Storm Darragh did not dampen Melton's spirits in and around the town with festive celebrations taking place as the Victorian Market moved undercover to the Stockyard at the Cattle Market. There was also the Christmas Tree Festival held at St Marys Church which is always guaranteed to get you in the Christmas Spirit, followed by a weekend of toe tapping and jiggging away at the Folk Music trail taking place throughout Melton's many pubs and cafes.

Closer to home at The Grange Garden Centre and Mountain Restaurant there was a Thursday festive shopping event with 10% off everything in the gift shop and live music in the restaurant and also Party Nights held on Fridays and Saturday nights. The next big party to be held at the Mountain restaurant is the Annual Nearly New Years night on Sat 28th Dec with food and live music provided by the Veltones. Then onto New Years Eve itself where here at the Grange Caravan Park we invite all of our guests to bring something to share and join us in an evening to toast in the New Year.
